Audrey Bennett

Instagram: @audreybennettactor

Audrey began her acting career at age 7, playing the role of Gretl for the Broadway national tour of "The Sound of Music." At age 9, she made her New York Broadway debut in "Amélie," and originated the role of Young Anna in "Frozen, The Musical." Audrey has also been seen in the "Beastie Boys Story," HBO's "Love Life," ABC's "Evil," Amazon Prime's "Hunters," and HBO Max's "Sesame Street." Later this year, Audrey will be appearing in the "Sopranos" prequel feature film "The Many Saints of Newark." In her free time, Audrey loves playing with friends, singing, choreographing dances, and baking. Audrey is thrilled to be working with the United Way!

Marissa Rosen

@themarissarosen

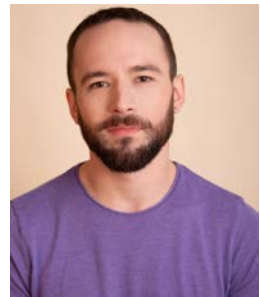

Marissa made her Broadway debut in "For the Girls," after appearing in several off-Broadway shows, including: "The Marvelous Wonderettes," "My Big Gay Italian Wedding," and "Tony & Tina's Wedding." Marissa is also an accomplished recording artist. In addition to a recent musical release called "The Award-Winning Holiday Album," her vocal talents have supported such artists as Shoshana Bean, Patti LuPone, Betty Buckley, Frankie Grande, and Lillias White. Marissa is a huge advocate for Broadway Cares/Equity Fights Aids, proudly raising $50,000 for this important cause.

Analise Scarpaci

@analise_2999

Analise is a New York based performer and singer. She has been seen on Broadway in "A Christmas Story, The Musical;" "Matilda, The Musical;" and most recently has been cast as Lydia Hillard in the upcoming production of "Mrs. Doubtfire." Analise has also been seen as Hortensia in the first national tour of "Matilda," and appeared in off-Broadway productions of "Lolita, My Love" at the York Theatre Company. Since the pandemic began, Analise has been working on original music, which will be released in 2021.

Gabe Violet

@GabeViolet

Gabe moved to New York to join the original Broadway production of "Spring Awakening" as Otto. Following this, he joined the tenor vocal group "The Broadway Boys," taking him across the country to share the art of theatre and song. In 2016, Gabriel made it past 'blind auditions' and became a featured member of Team Alicia on NBC's "The Voice" where he got to live his lifelong dream of becoming part of the zeitgeist of American Reality TV. He sends infinite love to his family, his partner Cooper, his cat Henry, his friends, and Beyonce.
